Minutes by MM-T and OB

- We played a game called 'Cyber Sprinters' to teach us the dangers online but while doing so we had a lot of fun. Another aspect of the game was like subway surfers.
- Today, we made some 'Live Chat Wednesday' posters to teach all of the children online about how it's okay to talk to somebody when you're scared about something online. Our aim to encourage our peers to talk to an adult if they are worried about something that has happened.
- We then made age-appropriate games' posters and finished by discussing ideas for the Christmas fayre to raise money for our Digital Leaders platform.
